

THE UNIVERSITY
of EDINBURGH

Usher Building Opening 2025

Edinburgh | 26 June 2025

Ground floor

First floor

Key

- Showcase
- 1 Medical Informatics
- 2 Resolution Therapeutics
- 3 Engineering Health: CHAI
- 4 Biomedicine, Self and Society
- Ceremony
- Live streaming
- Refreshment point

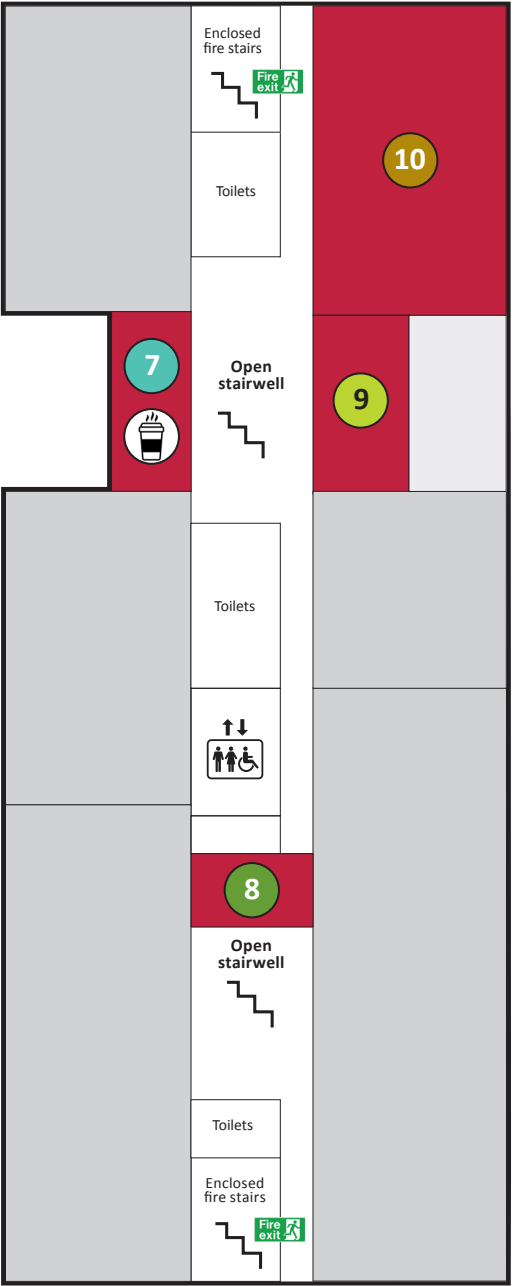

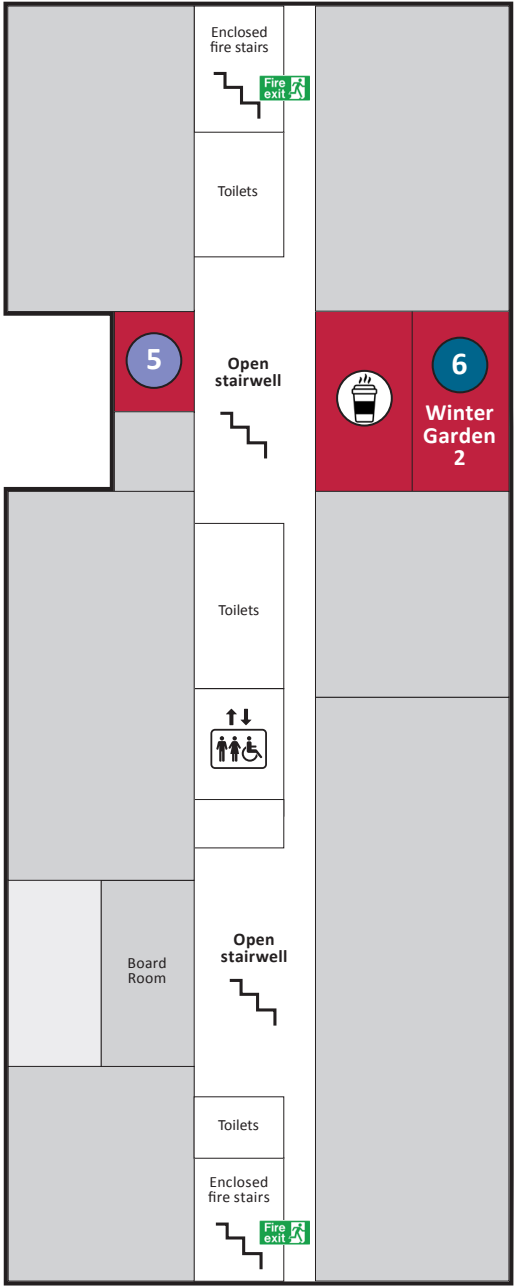

Second floor

Third floor

- 5 Advanced Care Research Centre
- 6 Population Health and Training
- 7 Cohort Studies and Evidence Synthesis
- 8 Edinburgh Clinical Trials Unit & ACCORD
- 9 Global Health
- 10 Public Involvement, Engagement and Innovation
-  Refreshment point

Full details of programme,
posters & exhibits

the difference we make

Our innovative thinking, world-class research and teaching, and strong strategic partnerships help to shape and inform advances in health and care across the globe.

To discover the impact we have, and hear about how we are making a difference locally and globally, please explore 'The difference we make' on our website.

Find out more

Large scale data, large scale impact

Clinical trials and cohort studies

Public perspectives, ethics & integrity

Collaborating across disciplines

Enhancing population health

Strengthening global health

Amplifying clinical connections

Accelerating innovation

Usher Connects

The University of Edinburgh's Usher Institute holds Usher Connects events to explore how working with people, populations and their data can transform health in society.

Full programme of Usher Connects events, including the Usher Annual Lecture.

THE UNIVERSITY
of EDINBURGH

Usher
Institute

Usher Institute Annual Lecture & Showcase

Thursday 25 Sept 2025 | McEwan Hall, Edinburgh

Join us for our keynote lecture complemented by a showcase of work from across the Usher Institute.

Dr David B. Nash
Thomas Jefferson
University, Philadelphia

'Post pandemic population health in the USA and beyond'